How Can The Dream Survive If We Murder The Children?: ABORTION IS NOT A CIVIL RIGHT!

Synopsis

How Can The Dream Survive If We Murder The Children? This compelling question impacts nations and generations of human beings, many of whom have experienced physical, emotional and spiritual oppression spanning the course of many lifetimes. How Can The Dream Survive brings hope, light and life to those who have pondered the issue of abortion, and whose questions have yet to be answered: Is abortion a civil right? Is abortion good for women? What's so bad about genocide? What would Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. say about abortion? Who are the survivors? What about life, liberty and justice for all? As the niece of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; daughter of Rev. A. D. King, and granddaughter of Dr. Martin Luther King, Sr., Alveda shares her personal testimony with compassion and sensitivity. Love is a powerful force, and her message of life, love and justice resonates. Alveda is a mother, grandmother and minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I am amused at how Mr. Fuchs cloaks himself in some quasi-intellectual posturing throughout his so-called "review" of Alveda King's book, a book which I seriously doubt he has even read. There is absolutely no indication in this review that Mr. Fuchs has even bothered to read Dr. King's book. What is most amusing is the utter and complete hypocrisy of Mr. Fuchs' many positions about both Glenn Beck and Alveda King. Mr. Fuchs proclaims that Glenn Beck has a desire to "judge" others, when in, fact, Mr. Fuchs has done NOTHING but make one negative judgment after another about both Glenn Beck and Alveda King in this review. What utter and complete hypocrisy on the part of Mr. Fuchs! As a Roman Catholic and a Christian, I will leave the judgments to God. It is not my place to cast stones and judge others. Mr. Fuchs claims that Glenn Beck sees himself as "specially filled with the spirit" and has "special revelations that only he understands" and that Beck has an "inflated ego." Never has Mr. Beck claimed to be specially filled with the spirit, or to have special revelations that only he understands. That is nothing but pure negative judgment on Mr. Fuchs part. Mr. Beck is a man who humbly gets down on his knees and prays to God for His grace and understanding, asking God what he might do to help others and to help his country, which Beck obviously loves so much. Mr. Beck asks all of us to approach God with this same humility, on our knees in prayer. Mr. Beck sees Americans and America as a country that has increasingly turned away from God over the past decades, and he believes we do this at our own moral peril. Beck believes our country is headed for moral bankruptcy.
